$100 PRIZE!!

Being extremely anxious to give our patrons the best possible paper, and to gratify all tastes, and also to reward native talent, the editor of the

NEWPORT Weekly Journal,

Hereby offers a prize of
ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS!
For the best story, of one hundred columns, for publication in the

It will pay at the same rate, ($1 a column), for a shorter story of not less than 25 columns,—the preference to be given to the best, without any regard to length. All manuscripts to be written in a legible hand, and to be sent sealed to the editor prior to Oct. 1st, 1857.

Payment will be promptly made to the successful competitor, and the names of all writers will be kept with the strictest confidence, but to none other than a creditable performance will an award be made.

ALSO, A $25.00 PRIZE FOR THE BEST POEM.

Of About 1,000 Lines!!!

Subject to the same conditions as above.

We shall commence the publication of the STORY AND POEM
on or about Oct. 1st, 1857, in the
NEWPORT WEEKLY JOURNAL.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUGUST 8, 1857.

ON THE OUTSIDE OF THIS ISSUE.—First Page.—Origin of the French Tricolor, &c., &c.

The cultivation of taste is a matter too often neglected among us busy, driving Americans, and yet to hear the talk of many of the mamma's and papa's, whose aim is chiefly to see that their children receive every essential of good education we might be inclined to think that here of all places, and in these days of refined manners and enlightened intellects, we should look and expect to find the truest, and the justest appreciation and tuition in good taste—but as many persons seem to mistake the production and gratification of morbid appetences and desires for the cultivation of taste, and many writers appear to regard its cultivation as the multiplication of human wants, without reference to the purposes accomplished through the instrumentality of such wants.

We do not wish to advance the idea that taste is a very simple affair, indeed, we think far differently; it is according to our ideas a very complex matter, and one which requires much study to be well understood, and consequently appreciated as it should be.

The application of taste proves that it is a complex idea. It applies to all the instincts of the body and all the powers of the mind. These are certainly the proper subjects of education, and just in proportion as they are cultivated or neglected will a human being be virtuous or vicious,—hence the importance of a correct cultivation of taste and the incalculable evils resulting from improper training.

The infant comes into the world as pliable as clay in the hands of the potter, and it can easily be moulded either into a future course of virtue or vice. Remember the old and true maxim—

“Just as the twig is bent the tree's inclined.” The married and bruised sapling may become one of the giants of the forest, but the scars of its trunk and the defects of its branches will proclaim for ages the maltreatment of its infancy, and so, also, the impressions which are made on the delicate and plastic mind of a child, will tell for good or for evil throughout a lifetime. Hence the true value of the education of good taste, without which the distinction between good and bad is nearly indiscernible, and with which, the mind seeks for that, and that only which is good.

The City Council of Cleveland, Ohio, recently appointed a committee to solicit subscriptions to a fund to be expended in erecting, in one of their public squares, a monument to the memory of Commodore Perry, and a meeting is to be held in North Carolina on the 17th of September to devise means to erect a monument at Guilford, in memory of General Green.

The lives of these two men fill an important niche in the biographical history of our country, and it is gratifying to know that while Rhode Island has so little for their memory that the people of other States are appreciating their virtues and are taking the proper measures to have them remembered.

Rhode Island has always been the last to do justice to the merits of her own distinguished citizens.

Pessmore Williamson, we understand, instituted legal proceedings on Saturday, against Chief Justice Lewis, of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania, for illegally refusing to grant him a writ of habeas corpus during the period when he was arbitrarily detained in Prison by Judge Kane.—N. & U. S. Gazette.

LOCAL NEWS.

A few days since we made a hasty visit to the Beach at about 11 o'clock a. m., the hour when Fashion, doffing broad-cloth and ermine, assumes the bathers' garb. An animated and joyful scene greeted our eyes on arrival. The southern breeze blew softly from the tremulous horizon upon the shining sands, long lines of carriages sped swiftly and noiselessly over the smooth, sloping shore, which the receding tide had relinquished to the equal delight of horses and riders. Amid the rolling foam, or flitting gaily to and from their ears, were troops of bathers, of all possible sizes, clad in robes of many shapes and colors, and presenting, generally, a bewildering and fantastic spectacle. Happiness beamed in a thousand faces, and we were regretful at being so speedily summoned, to withdraw to town, to office, and to ink. It was most gratifying, however, to witness so decided a penchant for the surf on the part both of our own citizens and of our summer guests. It appears indeed unlikely that so long as the Atlantic breaks upon Faston's Beach, Newport can ever sink into that unfathomable and unattractive obscurity which the enemies of the place sometimes effect to regard as its already foreshadowed doom.

The Illustrated Gymnasium. This is the title of a new book by R. T. Trall, M. D., now being published by Fowler & Wells, New York. The work comprehends considerably more than the title expresses; for it contains not only an exposition of Gymnastics proper, but also the applications of Gymnastic, Calisthenic, and Vocal Exercises to the development of the whole body, the proper training of weak and defective organs, and to the cure of disease. Brief instructions are given in the various “manly exercises,” as Swimming, Sailing, Rowing, Riding, etc.; and not the least valuable part of it is the analysis of the rudimentary sounds of the English language, with the instructions predicated thereon, to enable the student to obtain full command of the respiratory apparatus, and acquire fluency and power of Voice and Speech.

All departments of the work are profusely illustrated with engravings. It is a book for the Individual, the Family, the Club, and the School. It will be completed in two numbers. Price for the work complete, $1.25. Address FOWLER & WELLS, 308 Broadway, New York.

Hon. Edward Everett, whose fame as a scholar, an essayist, and an orator, has filled America and Europe for the quarter of a century, proposes to deliver his recent and celebrated Oration, upon the life and character of Washington, in this city, on Monday evening, the 17th inst. Nothing could be more felicitous to the people of Newport than such an arrangement. Our pleasure in anticipating this event, must also be greatly heightened upon remembering the object of Mr. Everett's effort. He devotes the receipts of his labors to hasten the completion of the monument designed to perpetuate the name of the champion of our independence. In view of this fact, our desire to hear the illustrious orator can not but be vastly strengthened; for not only is that feeling a tribute to the honored living, but also a token of affection to the memory of the noble dead.

The Gift Enterprise at 150 Thames street, still continues to attract visitors by the scores. We have heard of several instances of remarkable good fortune attending the purchase of goods at that establishment. But in all cases satisfaction follows a transaction there, as a “bargain” is its necessary result. The books offered for sale are marked at unusually low prices.—Apart from the chances of a valuable “Gift,” the greatest inducements are afforded to purchasers, in the quality of the goods and the rates at which they can be obtained.

Yesterday our city was for a while enlivened by excursions from Providence and New Bedford, the steamer Canonicus hailing from the former and the Eagle's Wing from the latter place. Neither boat remained long in our immediate waters, but their advent was a pleasant one, and deserves a hearty notice at our hands.

Court of Justices.

FRIDAY, August 7, 1857.
Jas. Mahon v. John Mahony.—Continued:—
Edward Dorsey v. Johnathan H. Lake. Van Zandt for plaintiff, and Sheffield for defendant.

Dorsey is a miner, and has sued for wages. Lake the defendant, claims damages for breach of contract on the part of the plaintiff, he having left the defendant at a very busy season of the year.

Defendants Attorney objects to the suit, that the plaintiff is a miner, and can not sue in his own name. Dismissed on account of non-appearance of plaintiff.

State v. Edwin Packard.—Keeping house of ill-fame. He refused to contend the case in the lower court, and was adjudged probably guilty, and required to enter into surety in the sum of three hundred dollars for his appearance to the Supreme Court, August Term.—Committed for want of Sureties.

State v. Mary Burnett.—Vagrancy.—continued one week.

State v. Harriet Davenport, the same.

State v. Fanny Kemble—the same, adjourned to Tuesday next.

GENERAL NEWS.

RASPING THE COURIER.—The Boston Courier is the best exemplification we know of that Conservatism which opposes all Reform and Progress, and blames Reformers for all the evil which they fruitlessly struggle to prevent. Here is a specimen of its logic:—
“Oregon, it is apprehended, may come into the Union as a Slave State. If it should be so, the event may justly be charged to the account of the general agitation of the subject of Slavery. We have the best Anti-Slavery authority for saying that this agitation has not yet gained an inch of free soil. It will, on the other hand, be accountable for whatever enlargement of the area of Slavery may ensue. Anti-Slavery agitation is not a negative principle by any means.—It is its advocates admit that, after so many years of active operation, it has failed to secure an inch of free soil, its opposers may fairly assume that its influence has been in the other direction. There may possibly be some truth in the remark that, if there be anything worse than Slavery, it is Anti-Slavery.”

Of course! And if there is anything worse than Intemperance, it is Temperance; if there is anything worse than Libelism, it is anti-Libelism; if there is anything worse than Murder, it is anti-Murder. Has all the opposition to Crime ever secured to a single township perfect immunity from Crime? And if men persist in killing one another, shall we not lay the blame on “the general agitation on the subject of” killing? By all means!

Three years ago, nobody dreamed of Oregon ever becoming a Slave State, while it was exceedingly probable that Kansas would be nothing else. Since then, agitation with regard to Slavery in Kansas has been active and constant, while next to nothing has been said about Slavery in Oregon. As a result, we feel great confidence that Kansas, though now enslaved, will become a Free State, while there is serious doubt as to the triumph or defeat of Slavery in Oregon. The Courier's logic will not adapt itself to these notorious facts.—N. Y. Tribune.

THE ACCIDENT AT NIAGARA FALLS.—The rock which fell at the Falls on Sunday was a part of the cliff between the Biddle Staircase and the Observatory. The Buffalo Commercial says:—

“Four persons were below the Falls, about half way from the Biddle Staircase to the tower; they were near the water's edge, and the falling rocks rolled down upon them, after striking the base of the perpendicular cliff. One, a gentleman from Pittsburg, was so badly hurt that his recovery is doubtful; his skull is broken, and he has also a fracture of the hip. A gentleman from New Haven, Mr. Williams, had his arm broken, but was able to climb the Staircase unassisted. A man living at the Falls was fishing with his son, a lad of about twelve years of age. The father escaped by running, but the boy had his leg broken. It is almost miraculous that the entire party were not killed.”

THE WELLINGTON MONUMENT.—On Monday, the models designed in competition for the Wellington monument were exhibited to public view in Westminster Hall, and visited by upwards of 6000 persons. There are nearly a hundred designs. Half the number are contributed from England, Ireland and Scotland; and Italy, Germany, Spain and America furnish nearly fifty. The exhibition will be kept open for some time. The names of the sculptors are of course not known, but each one has a motto or special designation, by means of which the respective competitors will hereafter be discovered. On entering the hall, the coup d'oeil is very beautiful. To give some idea of the nature of the exhibition, it will suffice to state that several of the competing artists valued the models alone at $25,000.—Boston Advertiser.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY IN NEW YORK.—About one o'clock, Wednesday morning last, the residence of Alexander Boyd, on West Nineteenth street, was entered by two burglars, who were discovered by Mr. Boyd in his bedroom. He recognized them as parties whom he had often seen in a grocery beneath, kept by his brother. He attacked the ruffians, and drove them from the house, but they again returned, when Mr. Boyd again attacked them and attempted to effect their arrest. A desperate fight ensued, and one of the ruffians drew a revolver and fired it at Mr. Boyd four times, each with effect. Mr. Boyd fell mortally wounded. Two men named Edward Landragan and Francis Campbell, are in custody, charged with the burglary and murder.

THE WARREN TELEGRAPH.—The spirited attempt to publish a semi-weekly paper in Warren has not met with the success that it deserved; and the Telegraph has fallen back on its weekly issue. A community is not true to its own best interests when it fails to extend a generous support to the local press. A good newspaper belongs to the same class of influences as the pulpit and the school-house. The telegraph will doubtless be well supported as a weekly paper.—Prosp. Jour.

QUEEN VICTORIA IN CAMP.—The Queen of England has recently been living in camp with the soldiers at Aldershot. She had a good opportunity to try the comfort of living under canvas, as a heavy rain storm prevailed during a part of the time she was there. There were grand reviews and sham fights got up for her to witness, with all the various plans of attack and retreat.—Boston Traveller.

The last advices from Europe indicate the almost certainty of magnificent harvests in England, France and Spain, together with a better vintage in France than there has been for years. This will do much for the commercial prosperity of the world, and will undoubtedly operate to a great extent in allaying political discontent and strife.—Boston Traveller.

DIDN'T WRITE IT.—Upon the reading of the Declaration of Independence at Syracuse, N. York, by a citizen of that place, a gentleman from the rural districts made this comment: “Oh, he read it well enough, but I'm darn'd if I believe he ever wrote it!”

Charles Sumner attended a late meeting of the Ballot Society Committee in London,—an organization urging the secret ballot upon Parliament,—and gave them valuable information respecting the ballot in this country.

MOTTO FOR AN INTOXICATED CLOTHING DEALER.—Hick jacket (jacket).—Worcester Bay State.

BORN TO GOOD LUCK.—Many persons are supposed to be born to good luck. This is an error. The luck of individuals, except in rare cases, depends mainly upon their own independence and energy. They who are not afraid to risk a little to gain more are the persons who prosper in life. The timid always remain where they are in the ignoble servitude to others which, except in our youthful years, should not be tolerated by men of activity and strength. Luck is ready for every man who seeks it, and there seems to be a law of nature that guarantees success to those who rely upon their own energies. If a person has not capital enough to commence a commercial pursuit for which he is inclined, how easy is it for him to gain it by risking a little in chances, better than those which attend ordinary business. Let him send ten dollars, for a whole ticket, in one of their Saturday lotteries, to Swan & Co., Atlanta, Georgia, or a proportionate sum for a half or a quarter of a ticket. Out of the thousands of prizes, varying from twenty dollars to fifty thousand, who knows that even the latter may not be destined for him? There is a tide in human events, which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune.

FREMONT'S GOLD CLAIMS.—A very important principle has been decided by the Supreme Court of California in the case of the Merced Mining Company agt. John C. Fremont—a case which from the magnitude of the interests involved, has attracted great attention. The court holds that the minerals in the land belong to the owner of the land and not to the United States, as has been claimed by some; and that the extracting them by other parties would be working him an irreparable injury. Consequently an injunction will hold. The decision was rendered by a majority of the court, the chief justice dissenting.

TRANSPLANTING HICKORIES.—If those who expect to have occasion or desire to transplant hickory trees next Spring will go now and dig under them where they stand in the woods or fields and cut the tap root, they will stand a fair chance to make the trees live, and not without. If the tree to be moved is several years old, you must also dig a trench around it in the Fall, and after the mass of earth attached to the roots freezes, move the tree with that bulk of earth attached, and then the tree will stand a fair chance to live.

REMOVAL OF A “BUSINESS MAN.”—One of our citizens who has just returned from the South has handed us the following, which was posted up by a man in Cabell county Va., who recently changed his residence under peculiarly disagreeable circumstances. That man's eye to business is remarkably steady.

I have moved my residence, my shop is in the fore room of the Jail. All persons wishing to see me will please call as my business is so that I can't leave.
Yours most truly,
Charles W. Johnston.

Warren Telegraph.

MR. MASON, DEAR SIR:—I have been troubled with dandruff in my hair for many years, have tried many preparations for the hair, such as laurals and hair oils, all warranted to cure dandruff, &c. When I saw your Alpine Hair Balm advertised, I thought it must be a humbug, like many other articles, and thought no more of it, until I was advised by a friend who had used it. I must say that it has freed my hair from dandruff; my hair is now soft and glossy.

Yours respectfully,
G. POINTELL, Providence, R. I.

TO PRESERVE CHERRIES.—Add to the cherries an equal weight of loaf sugar. Melt the sugar with the fruit, taking care not to boil. After the sugar is melted, let them stand in a hot place for three hours; then pour out in soup plates, cover them with a thin cloth, and set in the sun for several days. By preserving in this way, the fruit retains its natural flavor and color, and will keep the year round.

GOLD DISCOVERIES IN CANADA.—Rumors are again revived of large discoveries of Gold in Canada, and the Quebec Mercury says that an old Californian explorer has been exhibiting specimens of gold found in one of the tributaries of the Chaudiere. He reports the prospects of gold digging to exceed anything he ever saw in California. Three hours' work yielded, in nuggets and grains, over an ounce.—Boston Traveller.

THE NO ADVANCE WAGES MOVEMENT.—The packet ship Saranac, which left port on Saturday for Liverpool, shipped a crew without difficulty or delay, although no advance wages were given. A report has been published to the effect that the advance wages were given, but it was erroneous. A little persistence and firmness on the part of ship owners will ensure the establishment of the new system, and we doubt not that the seamen themselves will soon be convinced of its advantages.—Philad. Bulletin.

LATEST FROM MAINE.—The editor of the Norfolk Journal has been travelling in Maine and writes:—
“Hoop-skirts and crinolines are domesticated in Maine, and appear to attain a great rotundity there as in some other part of the world. Pretty young ladies are as assuming as they are elsewhere. Note keepers make their houses gonged by a prodigious noise on gongs.”

The New York Evening Post says “it is a fact of the credit of which we are a little tenacious, that no editor so far as we know has ever been sentenced to state prison.”

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WILLIAM H. SMITH,
DENTIST,
Swinburne's Block, 130 Thames-st.

READ! READ! READ!—“Ye afflicted read” the following Certificate of a cure of over 20 years' standing:—
H. T. HELMOLD.—Dear Sir:—I have been troubled with an affection of the Bladder and Kidneys for over twenty years. I have tried physicians in vain, and at last concluded to give your genuine preparation a trial, as I had heard it highly spoken of. I allowed my immediate relief. I have used three bottles, and I have obtained more relief from its effects and feel much better than I have for twenty years previous. I have the greatest faith in its virtues and curative powers, and shall do all in my power to make it known to the afflicted. Hoping this may prove advantageous to you in assisting you to introduce the medicine, I am truly yours,
M. McCormick.

Lewisville, Pa., Jan. 23, 1857.

Should any doubt Mr. McCormick's statement, he refers to the following gentlemen.
Hon. Wm. Bigler, ex-Governor, Pennsylvania.

Hon. Thos. B. Florence, Philadelphia.
Hon. J. C. Knox, Judge, Tioga Co., Pa.

Hon. J. S. Black, Judge, Philadelphia.
Hon. D. R. Porter, ex-Governor, Pennsylvania.

Hon. Ellis Lewis, Judge, Philadelphia.
Hon. R. C. Grier, Judge U. S. Court, Philadelphia.
Hon. G. W. Woodward, Judge, Philadelphia.

Hon. W. A. Porter, City Solicitor, Philadelphia.
Hon. John Bigler, ex-Governor, California.

SOMETHING NEW EVERY WEEK.
Testimony in favor of Prof. O. J. WOOD'S
Hair Restorative Voluntary Certificates, of which one will be published every week.

No. 1.
VINCENNES, IN., June 22, 1853.

PROF. O. J. WOOD.—As you are about to manufacture and vend your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will state, for whomsoever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it—that, I have, for several years, been in the habit of using your Hair Restoratives, and that I find yours vastly superior to any other I know. It entirely cleanses the head of dandruff, and with one month's proper use will restore any person's hair to the original youthful color and texture, giving it a healthy, soft and glossy appearance; and all this, without discoloring the hands that apply it, or the dress on which it is used. I would, therefore, recommend its use to every one desirous of having a fine color and texture to hair.

Respectfully yours,
WILSON KING.

Beware of articles purporting to produce “results similar,” as they are only abortive attempts to palm off a miserable article on the popularity of this, under a different name.

ALPINE HAIR BALM

Restoring Gray Hair to Its Original Color.

WARRANTED to cure Baldness, Scurf, Dandruff, itching and all diseases of the scalp. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the roots of the Hair, which passes through the Hair, and gives it a natural color without the use of Hair Dye.

Hundreds of preparations have been introduced, pretending to preserve the Hair and keep it from falling off, composed of Oils, Alcohol and other deleterious materials, and all colored Hair Dyes have been introduced, but do not give the Hair a natural color, besides being troublesome to use. This Balm is not a Dye. Knowing that a preparation was needed to do what was required for the Hair, the proprietor was induced to experiment until he could obtain an article that would not leave the scalp itching and inflamed, but always all irritation of the scalp, thereby stopping that troublesome itching. It cures Dandruff and Scurf, and when the Hair has turned gray it will bring it back to its original color. It is Black, Brown or Auburn. It makes the Hair soft and glossy—prevents it from falling off, and will be seen by using this Balm for only a few days—a life will be given to the roots of the Hair, and growth will soon appear. Growth does not take place at the end of the Hair, as will be seen in persons who have their Hair dyed. If you examine gray hair that has been cured for a week, you will find towards the roots that the hair has come out gray, hence it is necessary to have the fluid at the roots of the hair healthy, that the whole hair may be a natural color. Each hair has a root in the skin, and is of itself a hollow, gray tube, through which there is a constant circulation of the pigment from the scalp. When this pigment color matter dries out, the hair becomes hollow and it becomes gray. To invent a Balm that would produce this pigment has become the study of the proprietor. The discovery of the Alpine Hair Balm will do it. It will bring the Hair to its natural color by making anew the coloring matter in the roots of the hair.

It is a mistaken notion that oil or grease will restore the hair, as nothing can be more injurious. The Alpine Hair Balm, Hair restorer, the skin and gives the hair of those who have been with fever or any disease.

JOY TO THE AFFLICTED!
It cures Nervous and Debilitated Sufferers, and removes all the symptoms, among which will be found

Indisposition to Exercise, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Tremors of Disease, weak Nerves, Tremors of Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, Often Enormous Appetite, with Dyspeptic symptoms, hot hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Full and Contumacious and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently blank spots flying before the eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight; Want of attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with horror of society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than solitudo and nothing more

Dread for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

These symptoms, if allowed to go on—which this medicine invariably removes—soon follows Loss of Power, Fatuity, and Epilepsy. In one of which the patient may expire. Who cannot say that these direful diseases—Insanity and Consumption! The records of the Insane Asylums, and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appen and quite destitute—neither mirth or grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.
